Creative Connections Memory Café at the Northville Art House

Join the Northville Art House for our Creative Connections Memory Cafés, welcoming social gatherings for people living with changes in their memory or thinking, and the people who care about them. Two Memory Cafes will be held each month: one focused on visual arts, and one focused on music. Each program will feature refreshments and time for socialization, a guided activity in the Art House gallery, and a hands-on workshop.

Learn more at <https://northvillearthouse.org/memorycafe/>.

CREATIVE CONNECTIONS:

Memory Cafe Programs at the Northville Art House

Beginning in January, the Northville Art House will offer two Memory Cafe programs each month:

A Visual Arts Memory Cafe on Mondays
from 1:30-3 pm:

January 12
February 16
March 16

A Musical Memory Cafe on Thursdays
from 1:30-3 pm:

January 22
February 26
March 26

While this is a free program, advanced registration is encouraged so we can be sure to have enough supplies. Register using this QR code.

Memory Cafes at the Art House are supported by a grant from CultureSource.

What is a Memory Cafe?

Memory Cafes are welcoming social gatherings for people living with changes in their memory or thinking, and the people who care about them. A Cafe is a place to have fun together, talk with others who understand what you're going through, and express yourself creatively by trying something new!
