DOWNTOWN Northville Timeless with a twist

Welcome to the May edition of the Northville Times, proudly brought to you by the Northville Downtown Development Authority!

Downtown Northville is stepping into May with momentum, energy, and plenty to look forward to. As construction continues on Main Street and Town Square, we're grateful for the continued support of our businesses and community! Sidewalks remain open, and your favorite shops, restaurants, and services are ready to welcome you.

This month brings fresh opportunities to explore downtown, from new arrivals in local storefronts to events and experiences that make Northville a destination. We're also excited to share updates on ongoing projects that will enhance the heart of our district while preserving its historic charm. Thank you for supporting local and being part of what makes Downtown Northville thrive.

Young Artist Art Fair

Saturday, May 9,11 a.m. - 3 p.m.

First Presbyterian Church of Northville

<https://northvillearthouse.org/YAAF/>

The Young Artist Art Fair highlights emerging young artists selling their original artwork and handmade crafts. Designed as both a marketplace and a learning experience, the fair gives participating artists the opportunity to develop entrepreneurial skills by presenting, pricing, and selling their work. Each artist keeps 100% of their sales, making the event an empowering introduction to the creative economy.

Visitors can expect a lively and engaging atmosphere with a wide range of artwork, live musical performances, and the chance to meet the artists behind the pieces. With Mother's Day weekend adding to the appeal, the fair offers a chance to find meaningful, one-of-a-kind gifts while supporting young talent.

A $5 suggested donation is encouraged for admission, with free entry for children 12 and under. Proceeds benefit the continuation of the Young Artist program at the Northville Art House.

Art of the Story

Friday, May 29, 5 - 8 p.m.
Northville Art House

<https://northvillearthouse.org/art-story/>

Books spark imagination, stir emotion, and transport us to new worlds, artists bring those worlds to life! The public is invited join us for the opening reception of the exhibition, Art of the Story. Through this exhibition, the Northville Art House invited artists to explore the boundless connection between literature and the visual arts. We challenged artists to select a book that moves them whether it sparks wonder, stirs deep emotion, or shifts their perspective and create works in a variety of media and styles that visually interpret or respond to its pages. Books have the remarkable power to inspire, educate, entertain, and transport us to worlds both real and imagined. Through 55 artworks, 47 artists have given these worlds new form, revealing the images, emotions, and ideas that live between the lines.

Juried by Katie Rothley, Marketing & Public Relations Librarian at the Northville District Library, this exhibition celebrates the magic of storytelling and the creative journeys it inspires.
